EXCITING INCIDENTS.

Two Sensational Speeches Made in Congress.

FILIBUSTERING CONDEMNED.

Mr. Bland Still Unable to Secure a Quorum on His Seigniorage Bill—Only a Short Session of the Senate—Democratic Senators Discuss the Tariff Bill in Caucus.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—The proceedings in the house yesterday were full of exciting incidents. Mr. Bland being unable to secure a quorum concluded to allow the debate on the bill to proceed.

Two sensational speeches followed, one by Mr. Pence of Colorado, who denounced the Republicans for submitting to the crack of ex-Speaker Reed's whip, and warned him if the election of a president was thrown in the house in 1896 he would rue his filibustering course, and the other by Mr. Fithian of Illinois, who condemned in the severest terms the action of his Democratic colleagues who were taking part in the filibuster.

Toward the close of the session, Mr. Pence's reflections on Messrs. Pickler and Ellis of Oregon drew forth from them a statement which Mr. Pence characterized as "absolutely untrue." He was twice called to order, and the house by a vote, refused to allow him to proceed.

In the Senate.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—The senate held but a short session yesterday in order to give the Democrats an opportunity afterward to continue the caucus begun in the morning. Mr. Morgan, chairman of the committee on foreign relations, presented the report on Hawaiian investigation, and Mr. Frye (Rep., Me.) gave notice that on Wednesday he would address the senate on that subject.

TARIFF BILL DISCUSSION.

Democratic Senators Caucus on the Wilson Measure.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—The Democrats of the senate spent almost the entire day in caucus discussing the tariff bill. The senate finance committee, which was called to consider the bill prepared by the subcommittee, was adjourned soon after assembling, and all the Democratic senators in the city, who were not confined to their homes by illness, were in the marble room where the caucus was held for an hour and a half before the senate met, and at 1 o'clock, after a brief session of the senate, again entered the caucus and remained until 5:30 p. m.

Senator Vest explained the bill at some length, a number of the changes and the reasons they were made.

One of the most striking incidents of the caucus was the remarks of Senator Vest, in criticism of the interview with Senator Brice in the New York World, in which the Ohio senator had said that the bill was prepared by three Confederate Brigadiers, who were idealists, and that northern and southern Democratic senators had not been consulted, nor had they been given an opportunity to present their views.

Senator Brice made a vigorous speech in reply. He declared that it was not so much who had made the statement as to whether or not it was true. The statement was true, he asserted, and every senator in the caucus knew it was true. He then took occasion to criticize some of the sectional features of the bill, and pointed out that certain kinds of iron, which was perfectly raw material to the manufacturers, was taxed and that cotton ties were placed on the free list. Senator Brice made quite an extended speech, and his remarks were largely sustained by Senators Morgan, Lindsay, Pugh, Butler and others from the south.

Incidentally Senator Brice tells of the origin of the caucus. He says he was discussing the matter with the president some days since and the president asked him why the Democrats did not have a conference. He afterward consulted Senator Gorman and others and it resulted in the conference in Senator Butler's room on Thursday last, when the request for the caucus was drawn and circulated, and subsequently the call issued.

Speeches were also made by Senators Gorman, Jones, White of Louisiana, Caffery, Morgan, Faulkner, Gray and Martin, and others spoke during the afternoon, as did several other senators briefly. There was no regular order of discussion, but each senator talked upon the subject nearest his heart, and many of them talked without limit as to time.

Senator White spoke at considerable length of the sugar schedule and made an urgent appeal for an increase of the duty on sugar over the figure agreed upon by the Democratic members of the finance committee. He also urged general harmony in the party and said that the only way to secure this result was to make such concessions as were regarded as absolutely necessary by senators representing states where certain interests were paramount, where these concessions could be made in a way to correspond with the Democratic party demand for a revenue bill. He believed sugar to be one of the articles thus situated.

Senator Caffery spoke in very much the same strain, as did also Senator Martin, who reminded the caucus of the party pledge for a tariff bill for revenue. There was no vote taken upon any proposition during the day and no effort was made to reach a vote. It is considered probable that several days will be spent in caucus and a leading Democratic senator expressed the opinion that it would be impossible for the caucus to dispose of the question at issue before the latter part of the week.

Very brief reference was made during the caucus to the income tax, and it seems generally understood that this feature is to be untouched. It is even said that eastern senators have consented generally to permit the tax to remain as a concession to the west and south, and those who are urging protection for coal, iron ore, lumber, sugar and other articles, will make the income tax a basis of reciprocal requests from their friends.

Senators Morgan and Pugh made a vigorous contest in the caucus during the day for a duty on iron ore and made very caustic speeches.

The internal revenue features of the bill were not generally discussed and it is understood that little was said about whisky. This tax, if changed at all from the house bill, will not be more than $1.10 per gallon.

GAVE HIMSELF UP.

Calvin Armstrong Will Serve Three Years For Embezzlement.

KOKOMO, Ind., Feb. 27.—Calvin Armstrong, Tipton county's ex-deputy treasurer and $43,000 embezzler, who escaped from jail two weeks ago, after having been sentenced to three years' imprisonment, is again in the hands of the law officers. He delivered himself to an officer from Kokomo at the Palmer House in Chicago yesterday afternoon and will be lodged in the penitentiary at Michigan City today.

Sunday afternoon the young man telegraphed here for Sheriff Simmons to meet him at the hotel, and on the arrival of the officer Armstrong was on hand. In any event, had he not voluntarily surrendered, he would have been arrested within a few hours, his whereabouts having been discovered through his sweetheart, Miss Mae Schellenberger of this city, who last Friday, joined him in Chicago. She, it is said, advised him to give himself up, as his capture would only be a question of time.

It seems that when Cal escaped from jail he went to the house of friends, but a short distance away, and remained there fully 13 hours. When ready to leave he was disguised in female clothing and went to Chicago, cherishing the hope that certain of his erstwhile friends would advance him enough money to get him to Mexico. He found very soon, however, that those who had aided him to "blow" his money on the race tracks were anything but friends in adversity, and, finding himself destitute, he soon concluded to take the advice of others and take his punishment. His father, who was treasurer, is now serving a one-year term for the same crime.

TWO CHILDREN DROWNED.

Seven Break Through the Ice, but Five Are Rescued.

MASSILLON, O., Feb. 27.—Fred Fisher and Katie Betzholder were drowned at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon a few minutes after being dismissed from St. Mary's Catholic school. When school was out a party of children took a short cut home across the Ohio canal. The ice was weak, and gave way without warning.

Seven struggling children were in the icy water at the same time. They shrieked for help, but only one man heard them, and he did heroic work in the rescue of five. The two named went under the ice and their bodies have not yet been recovered. A row of stakes has been driven across the channel above and below the spot where they went under, and when the ice is removed, it is hoped that the bodies may be found.

DEADLY STRUGGLE.

One Farmer Nearly Murders Another With an Ax.

LIMA, O., Feb. 27.—Samuel Seitz, a farmer living near Middleport, a small town west of here, almost cut Charles Clark, another farmer, into mince meat with an ax. Clark bought some timber from the owner of the farm Seitz lived on and visited the place to begin cutting it yesterday when Seitz stopped him and ordered him off the place.

Clark remonstrated with him and the quarrel resulted in a fight, during which Seitz began cutting Clark with an ax. His left hand was chopped off and his body hacked full of gashes before neighbors who had witnessed the conflict arrived on the scene, and disarming Seitz, bound him and kept him captive until the officers arrived and took charge of him. Clark can not recover.

Mr. Wilson's Condition.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 27.—A special from the City of Mexico says that Congressman William L. Wilson's condition has not undergone any material change since yesterday. The very best medical skill in Mexico has been called into the case and the distinguished American will have the best care and attention.

Will Continue the Strike.

WHEELING, Feb. 27.—The conference of the miners and operators in this city which was expected to settle the protracted mine strike, accomplished nothing, the mine operators refusing to make any concessions whatever, or even to listen to the employers. The strike will continue.

Boy Killed in a Prize Fight.

BOULDER, Colo., Feb. 27.—Harry Murray and Ira Evans, two boys, 14 years of age, while out coasting with their schoolmates, waged their sleds on the result of a prize fight between themselves. During the mill Murray struck Evans a violent blow under the heart, causing death in a few minutes.

A Child Fatally Burned.

BRAZIL, Ind., Feb. 27.—Patrick Morgan's 3-year-old daughter, Inez, was horribly burned at the home in Benwood, just north of this city. The child's clothes took fire, and when the mother reached her she was enveloped in flames. She will die.

BASE BALL RULES

Several Changes Made by the National League.

MAGNATES MEET IN NEW YORK.

Time of Championship Games Can Not Be Changed More Than Thirty Minutes.

The Diamond Hereafter to Be More Accurately Measured—The Committee's Report on Rules Adopted.

New York, Feb. 27.—The annual meeting of the National Base Ball League began yesterday afternoon at the Fifth Avenue hotel. When the meeting was called to order the following delegates were present: Messrs. Souden, Conant, Von der Ahe, Talcott, Van Cott, Keer, Auter, Hamlin, Robinson, Buckstahl, Reach, Rogers, Hart, Brush, G. W. and J. E. Wagner, Elliot, Abell and Byrne. During the session Messrs. John B. Day and J. W. Spalding were called into the parlor, but they only remained a few minutes.

The regular order of business was suspended, and the consideration of the amendments to the rules was begun at once. The first matter taken up was the prevention of the changing of the time for the calling of regular championship games. It was decided that the time of a championship game should not be changed more than 30 minutes. This was brought about by the action of the New York club, when last summer they made the Washington club play at half past 1 o'clock, so as to give the grounds to the Yale-Harvard clubs at 4 p. m.

The playing rules were next taken up and adopted as far as the committee on rules suggested. Old rules, 2 to 11, were stricken out and a new series adopted. The new rules made the formation of the diamond almost accurate to the one-thousandth of an inch, with the result that in the future a civil engineer will be required to lay out the diamond. This, hitherto, has been done by some one who knew "a little" about the game.

Section 2 of Rule 12 was amended to read as follows: "For each championship game two balls shall be furnished by the home club to the umpire for use. When the ball in play is batted to foul ground, out of sight of the umpire, the other ball shall be immediately brought into play. As often as one of the two in use shall be lost, a new one must be substituted, so that the umpire shall at all times after the game begins have two balls for use. The moment the umpire delivers an alternate ball to the pitcher it comes into play and shall not be exchanged until it passes out of sight to foul grounds. At no time shall the ball be intentionally discolored by rubbing it with the soil or otherwise."

The word "interior" was substituted for the word "yarn" in the second line of Section 4, Rule 12.

Rule 20 was changed to read as follows: "A tie game—If the score be a tie at the end of nine innings play shall be continued until one side has scored more runs than the other in an equal number of innings, provided, that if the side last at bat scores the winning run before the third man is out, the game shall terminate."

Rule 35 was amended as follows: "A fair hit is a ball batted by the batsman, standing in his position, that first touches any part of the person of a player or umpire or falls within foul lines that (whether it touches foul or fair lines) bounds or rolls within foul lines between home and first base or home and third base without interference by a player."

Rule 38 was changed as follows: "A sacrifice bunt hit is a ball batted by the batsman standing in his position that falls within fair grounds before reaching the lines between first and second bases and second and third bases as defined in Rule 36, that is made for the obvious purpose of advancing a runner occupying a base, which results in putting out the batsman or would so result if handled without error."

The creation of the above new rule necessitated the renumbering of the playing rules, other rule, No. 38, becoming 39, and so on up to Rule 68, which will be known as Rule 69, and all references to rule numbers in the revision apply to the new numbers. The new sections, Nos. 4 and 5, were added to Rule 41 as follows:

Section 4—A strike is a foul hit other than a foul tip made by the batsman while attempting a bunt sacrifice hit as defined in Rule 38, that falls or rolls upon foul grounds between home base and first base, or home base and third base.

Section 5—A strike is a ball struck at if the ball touches any part of the batsman's person.

A new section, No. 8, was added to Rule 43. It reads: "The batsman is out if, while attempting a third strike, the ball touches any part of the batsman's person, in which event baserunners occupying bases shall return as provided in Section 5, Rule 47."

A new section, No. 9, was added to Rule 43. It reads as follows: "If he hits a fly ball that can be handled by an infielder while first base is occupied with only one out."

Section 4 of Rule 44 is changed to read: "If while he is a batsman, without making an attempt to strike, his person, excepting hands or forearm, which makes it a dead ball, or clothing be hit by a ball from the pitcher, unless—in the opinion of the umpire—he intentionally permits himself to be so hit."

The last change adopted was the addition of a new section, No. 5, to Rule 47, which reads: "If while attempting a strike, the ball touches any part of the batsman's person."

It will be seen that the new section No. 9, to Rule 43, does away with the "trapped" ball play, which McPhee and Peffer can use to advantage.

It transpired after the meeting that Messrs. Von der Ahe and Reach were in favor of this new section, while Mr. Brush of Cincinnati fought against it for the very good reason that the star player, at this expert play, McPhee, belongs to his club.

KEEPING UP THE BOMBARDMENT.

A Few More Shots Fired in the Brazilian Revolution.

BUENOS AYRES, Feb. 27.—The following advices have been received from Rio Janeiro:

The neighboring town of Botafogo and the military school at that place have suffered severely from the bombardment by the insurgent squadron. The insurgent squadron is engaged in continual evolutions.

Magazine Blown Up.

LONDON, Feb. 27.—Dispatches received from Rio Janeiro say: The insurgent steamer Venus was off Engenho island early yesterday bombarding the government fort at Madama Point. Her ammunition was stored in a magazine constructed of bags of sugar piled high from the floor and about 7 feet thick on every side. A sailor who was taking a shot from the magazine dropped it on the floor. The shell exploded and the magazine was blown up. The sailor who dropped it was instantly killed and several other men were injured.

Entire Crew Drowned.

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—A Herald special from Rio Janeiro confirms the reports of the sinking of the rebel warship Jupiter. Rio bay last Thursday. A shell exploded in her boiler room and set fire to her powder magazine, which also blew up and sank her. Her entire crew perished, and adjacent vessels were injured by flying splinters.

Admiral Benham's Doings.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—A cablegram received last night by Secretary Herbert from Admiral Benham at Rio states that he had transferred his flag from the San Francisco to the New York. The purpose was to allow the San Francisco to go outside the harbor for fresh air. The ships are taking turns at the duty of staying in the harbor and it is now the New York's turn. Admiral Benham and his staff are the only persons in the fleet who are unable to indulge in the change.

BRAKE CHAIN BROKE.

A Motor Dashes Down a Hill, Injuring Three People.

CLEVELAND, Feb. 27.—Yesterday while passing down a steep hill on Seneca street, the brake chain on a South Side motor broke and the car dashed down the incline at a frightful speed. The motor kept to the track until the Cuyahoga river bridge was reached. When it struck the bridge, the car jumped the track and was dashed against the iron girders of the structure with terrific force. The motor was almost completely demolished.

Motorman Grimm stuck to his post and was badly, but not fatally injured. Conductor Bone was painfully bruised about the body. One of the two passengers on the car received slight internal injuries, while the other escaped without injury. That none were killed outright seems miraculous.

Probable Cause of Attempted Suicide.

LEAVENWORTH, Ind., Feb. 27.—A well dressed lady, about 30 years old, registering as Mrs. Martha Phillips, and claiming to be the widow of a former physician at Hamilton, O., registered at the Continental hotel, this city, and she was found in her room yesterday morning nearly dead from the effect of ether. The shooting brought to the scene a crowd which lynched the youthful murderer, filling him also with bullets.

HAWAIIAN REPORT.

President Cleveland's Policy Approved Of.

SENATE COMMITTEE REPORT.

Mr. Stevens' Acts Justified Except in Proclaiming a Protectorate—Nothing Irregular in the Appointment of Mr. Blount—The Committee is Also in Favor of Annexation.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—A volume of nearly 800 printed pages (exclusive of maps) was laid before the senate Monday, representing the testimony taken by the senate committee on foreign relations and their findings of facts thereon, under a resolution directing them to inquire whether any and, if so, what irregularities have occurred in the diplomatic intercourse between the United States and Hawaii in relation to the recent revolutions.

The report of the majority of the committee was prepared by the chairman, Mr. Morgan of Alabama. It exhaustively reviews the facts, the laws and the precedents, justifies Mr. Stevens' acts except in proclaiming a protectorate, and finds nothing irregular in the appointment of Mr. Blount, but in effect says the evidence taken by the committee under more favorable circumstances leads the committee to different conclusions than those which he formed.

This report is concurred in as to all its essential findings by the Republican members of the committee, Senators Sherman, Frye, Dolph and Davis, making a majority of the committee. They characterize it as an exceedingly able document, but they dissent on five points. First—They condemn the appointment of Commissioner Blount as unconstitutional.

Second—They say the executive orders placing the navy in the harbor of Honolulu under the orders of Mr. Blount or Mr. Willis were without authority of law.

Third—That the order of Blount to Admiral Skerrett to lower the flag was unlawful and susceptible of being construed as unfriendly to the provisional government, and they regard the intercourse of Mr. Blount and Mr. Willis with the deposed queen as violative of international law and unwarranted.

Fourth—They consider the president had no right to reopen the predetermined legality of the provisional government.

Fifth—They regard any discussion of the personal intentions or good faith of either Mr. Blount or Mr. Willis as immaterial, inasmuch as what they did in regard to the reinstatement of the queen was simply the performance of a task plainly commanded of them by this administration.

The report of the minority, signed by Senators Butler, Turpie, Daniel and Gray, without denying or conceding the correctness of other portions of the report, dissents from that portion of it "which declares that the only substantial irregularity in the conduct of Mr. Stevens, the late minister, was his declaration of a protectorate by the United States over Hawaii."

While exempting from censure Captain Wiltse of the Boston and his officers, because "their position was one of extreme delicacy and difficulty, and we appreciate their anxiety to afford protection to the lives and property of American citizens," they add, "we can not avoid the conviction that the inopportune zeal of Minister Stevens in project of annexation of the Sandwich Islands to the United States caused him to exceed the proper limits of his official duty and of his diplomatic relations to the government and people of those islands."

Sensors Butler and Turpie file a supplemental report in which they say that while the question of annexation was not submitted to the committee except incidentally, they think it not improper to say they are heartily in favor of the acquisition of these islands by the United States in a proper manner.

Expect to Make Headway.

WILKESBARE, Pa., Feb. 27.—There was quite an extensive fall in the Gaylord mine yesterday and the work of the rescuers was greatly impeded in consequence. The workers had timely warning of the squeeze and had no difficulty in making their escape to a place of safety. Superintendent Rosser says he does not anticipate any more falls and the men are expected to make good headway this week in their search for the 13 unfortunate men.

Death of a Noted Artist.

GEORGETOWN, Colo., Feb. 27.—A petition is being circulated here which calls upon the silver producing states to secede from the general government and join the republic of Mexico. Mayor Parker, whose name heads the petition, says it will be circulated in every mining camp in the west.

A WONDERFUL INCREASE.

From $1,800 a Week to $23,000—That is What Advertising Did For the Dobsons.

John and James Dobson, two Philadelphia carpet manufacturers, have had a unique experience with advertising, says an exchange. For a number of years they have maintained a store in New York to sell the products of their Philadelphia factory. The business was conducted in a sedate, dignified way, without any particular vim or enterprise, and the results were far from satisfactory.

The Dobsons finally decided to abandon the New York store, gave up their lease and entered upon a big closing-out sale. They engaged an advertising expert to advertise the sale and the newspapers came out with some of the brightest and most attractive advertisements New York has ever seen.

The store was soon crowded with buyers. From a weekly average of $1,800 the sales jumped to $23,000 per week, and have since even surpassed that figure. The results were so surprisingly satisfactory to the Dobsons that they immediately began to look about for a new store, and another location in the same neighborhood was finally decided upon. They will continue business in New York, and it is safe to add they will continue advertising.

There's a lesson in this for every business man, and for the professional man, too.

TURNPIKES AND SHANTYBOATS.

Bills Concerning Them Occupy the Attention of the Legislature Monday.

The House had a good Monday attendance. There were no interesting preliminaries, and the members at once got down to business.

On motion a bill to impose a tax on shantyboats was called up under a suspension of the rules and given its second reading, as were also several other bills, which, without some extraordinary effort, would be left slumbering on the calendar when adjournment comes.

In the Senate, Mr. Goebel's bill providing for the payment of turnpike indebtedness and having free turnpikes, was passed. The bill provides for levying a tax for this purpose.

The bill introduced by the same gentleman to give Fiscal Courts control of free turnpikes, upon the same plan as county roads, was passed.

FLORIDA now produces about 4,000,000 boxes of oranges; eight years ago she produced only 600,000 boxes. A writer says "unless some great disaster overtakes the orange groves, it will not be many years before production reaches 10,000,000 boxes."

SEVERAL interesting relics were found among the papers of the late Miss Mary Mackoy. THE fox chase on the hill back of the city Monday morning ended in the capture of sly Reynard near the slaughter houses on the Fleming pike. The deep snow was probably too much for the fox, although it is thought the animal injured itself by jumping over a cliff on the hill a short distance from the head of Market street. Many citizens witnessed the exciting chase.

THE Covington correspondent of the Enquirer says: "The Keifer assignment is now being wound up by the Master Commissioner. The amount involved or collected was a little over $30,000. The assignee is asking $5,000 for his services and the attorney for the assignee asks the same amount. The claim of the attorney is for services rendered, among which was knocking out the First National Bank for their priority claim."

ATE POISONED MEAT.

Two Farmers Dead and Over Fifty Others Are Sufferers.

SOMERSET, Pa., Feb. 27.—From the best information obtainable here two farmers are dead, 10 or 12 are seriously sick and 50 more are suffering from the effects of eating poisoned meat at a sale held on the 23d inst. in Quemahoning township. Jeremiah Ringler, a prominent citizen of the township, died yesterday morning from the effects of poisoning, and Alexander Rhodes, a leading citizen and farmer of Jenner township, is reported to have died during the day from the same cause. Those suffering from poison are scattered all over the northern part of the county.

Last Thursday some 250 farmers attended a sale of property in Jenner township and, according to custom, a cold lunch was served. Among the articles of food prepared was a lot of beef that had been boiled the previous evening in a copper kettle and had been permitted to remain in the vessel over night. Shortly after eating the meal, many persons took sick and the sale had to be adjourned.

A rumor has just reached here that at least 10 other residents of Jenner and Quemahoning townships can not possibly recover.

KENNEDY SAW A COMET.

Manifestation Fulfilled the Prophecy of a Sick Woman.

William H. Kennedy, residing at 405 Westford street, this city, says he saw a comet last Sunday night.

Walking on Middlesex street near Branch, his attention was attracted to a luminous object in the sky to the northward. The sky was clear, and the moon was shining in the southeast. When he first saw the comet, as he supposes, it appeared to be the size of a full moon, as bright as an electric light and surrounded by a halo.

The object moved slowly across the sky to the south, diminishing in brightness, until, attaining a reddish hue and the size of an orange, it disappeared. He thinks he kept the object in sight half an hour, and called the attention of a friend to it, who also witnessed its disappearance.

Mr. Kennedy considers the manifestation more remarkable as apparently fulfilling the prophecy of a sick woman, by whose bedside he was watching the previous night. About 3 o'clock a. m. the patient, with closed eyes, drew a diagram of a comet which she predicted would soon appear in the north.

Mr. Kennedy said he was thinking of this prediction when, looking up into the sky, he saw it apparently fulfilled.

An aerolite is reported to have fallen in New Bedford that night, striking within 10 feet of a woman. It may have been Mr. Kennedy's "comet."—Lowell Special in Boston Herald.

Gorging and Starving.

Great distress prevails in Liverpool, says a London newspaper, and the socialists are doing their best to utilize it to their ends. Meetings of unemployed workmen are held daily, and in these meetings the local municipal authorities are denounced in language calculated to cause trouble. The mayor is particularly obnoxious to these men because he has persistently declined to receive a deputation and because he continues municipal hospitality on a lavish scale. The other night he gave a juvenile ball, and the next day the socialists denounced him for gorging "the bull pups of aristocracy" with dainties, while the children of the poor are dying of starvation.

Hebrews in the Holy Land.

Nearly all the Hebrew leaders in Europe have united on a definite policy regarding colonization in Palestine, says a correspondent. They will not at the outset seek to attract Hebrews to the Holy Land. Their duty first will be to establish order and discipline among the Jews already there. The Rothschilds have already done a little to secure this by the initiation of a system of technical training and by establishing well appointed schools. It is comprehended that if the flow of refugees from Russia be directed there the difficulty will be increased. As a preliminary step therefore an attempt will be made to regulate that flow or even prevent it until the present objectionable features have been removed.

Fatal Runaway.

FORT WAYNE, Feb. 27.—Henry Kammeier and his wife, respected German Lutherans of this county, met with a fatal accident while driving to this city yesterday. The neckyoke of the carriage broke, and the frightened horses ran away, throwing the occupants out. Mrs. Kammeier alighted on her head and her neck was broken. She died instantly. Mr. Kammeier is seriously, if not fatally injured. He suffered severe scalp wounds and contusion of the brain.

Confesses to Forgery.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Feb. 27.—William H. Headley, secretary and treasurer of the Headley and Peck Distilling company, who left the city last week, ostensibly on business, has written his daughter, saying that he had forged a number of warehouse receipts and is on his way to Mexico. His 8-year-old daughter is with him. Headley's business associates have not yet ascertained the amount of his forgeries, but it is feared that it is large.

Spruille Baden Dead.

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—A private telegram from Washington announces the sudden death of Spruille Baden, one of the most brilliant and successful mining engineers of this country. He was for years United States assayer at Helena, Mont., and was probably the best competent temporary authority on silver, gold and copper ores of the Rocky mountain regions.

Cincinnati Tobacco Market.

The offerings, owing to a holiday intervening, were not as large as during the past month, and while the receipts were of good size there was some falling off from the previous week.

Business transacted during the week was again only fairly satisfactory, there being little or no change in the market from the week, a fluctuating demand being prevalent, and sales were not giving satisfaction.

The range of prices during the week is as follows: Of the 507 hds old 48 sold from $1 to $3.95, 96 from $4 to $5.95, 110 from $6 to $7.95, 187 from $8 to $9.95, 77 from $10 to $11.75, 59 from $12 to $14.75, 29 from $15 to $17.

Of the 1,080 hds new, 214 sold from $1 to $3.95, 366 from $4 to $5.95, 214 from $6 to $7.95, 138 from $8 to $9.95, 87 from $10 to $11.75, 54 from $12 to $14.75, 7 from $15 to $17.50.

Louisville Tobacco Market.

Furnished by Glover & Durrett, Louisville Tobacco Warehouse.

Sales on our market for the week just closed amount to 5,181 hds., with receipts for the same period, 3,792 hds. The market continued January 1st, amount to 35,269 hds. Sales of the crop of 1893 on our market to this date amount to 39,116 hds. Sales this week were the next to largest of the season. The market continued throughout the week, brisk and active. All grades of new barley with high color were some stronger, the very common grades, greenish or dingy in color were higher than they were ten days since by 25 to 50c. per hundred. We note no change in the common, medium or good grades of red fillers. The fine grades of fillers which have been selling at 14 to 20c., showed some weakness.

The following quotations fairly represent our market for burley tobacco (1893 crop):

DISARMAMENT OF EUROPE.

There Is Now a Strong Reactionary Sentiment Against the War Spirit.

It has long been the universal conviction of Europe that disarmament is only possible as the result of an exhausting general war, and that it is impossible to postpone that war after the limit of preparatory resources has been reached. There is a widespread feeling that certain nations are already beginning to pay the penalties of overtraining while others have attained their maximum fighting power. This is the real explanation of the prevalent war scare. It is not surprising, therefore, that the possibility of a peaceful attainment of the desired object is earnestly considered.

Newspapers reflect this spirit from various continental capitals. The Times quotes an unnamed foreign statesman as authority for a proposed project for partial relief from the present situation. He says:

"It is sought to remedy the present state of things not by disarmament, but in a way offering the advantages of disarmament and without affecting the principles on which armaments are being increased.

"Universal military service now exists in military countries and cannot be meddled with. The average length of active service is three years. Now it has been proved that a single year is ample for drilling conscripts and teaching them how to handle arms. The other two years are devoted to movements and marches, or, in other words, to what is called seasoning the men. Many good judges hold that the training which makes old soldiers is acquired only by five or seven years' service, and that in time of peace three years' service has not such superiority over one year as to justify triple the expense.

"The only means which I can see of putting an end to the senseless outlay is to make a 12 months' service obligatory on all. If anybody should propose a universal service of five or seven years, he would be thought mad. Universal service has been considered compatible with a reduction of seven or five years to three, thus materially lessening the expense. After years of experience it is now seen that three years are also incompatible with universal service.

"Nothing, therefore, is more logical, humane or conformable with economic exigencies than to reduce by two-thirds the burdens which are getting intolerable, and from which before long the only way of escape will be by utilizing the engines of destruction so that war will have to be made for its own sake, and it will be better to perish in action than a peace."

This is the most significant utterance thus far evoked in the reaction against the war spirit which for the moment is checking the monotonous storm of gloomy foreboding.—London Cor. New York Sun.

MANCHESTER VERSUS LIVERPOOL.

Bitter Jealousies Aroused by the Successful Operation of the Ship Canal.

A great meeting of merchants, traders and manufacturers will shortly be held at Manchester for the purpose of formally starting a boycott against Liverpool shipowners, who are accused of organized efforts to hinder and delay the successful working of the ship canal. The bitter feeling is growing in both cities, and a kind of Kilkenny cat war appears imminent. Manchester is certain to win because economic laws are in its favor and because Liverpool is nervous and frightened before the fight has actually commenced.

The Mersey dock and harbor board is being loudly accused of incompetency, and the Liverpool Land and House Owners' association is claiming the right to place a nominee on the board in order to help save the city from threatened ruin. Liverpool is certainly having a run of bad luck just now apart from the canal trouble. Fighting in Africa and the French and German competition are playing havoc with the once very profitable west African trade. Southampton is undeniably cutting into the business that once belonged exclusively to the Mersey port, and now the great Lancashire export cotton trade to Japan is seriously threatened by the reduction of cotton freights from India to Japan from 17 to 2 rapers per ton. This means that it costs the Lancashire manufacturer more than 12 times as much to send his goods to Japan as it costs rival makers in India.—Manchester Letter.

A New School of Journalism.

Professor Joseph French Johnson of the University of Pennsylvania is the latest exponent of the idea that journalism may be successfully taught in college. He has commenced a course at that institution which, he says, is merely intended to teach aspiring journalists a few things useful for them.

The course covers two years and embraces the study of public PROFESSOR JOHNSON. law and politics, American history and government, European history, logic and ethics, economics and social science, and some valuable instruction in the uses of statistics and the best methods of preserving and indexing such handy material for newspaper writers as may be found in newspapers and magazines. Besides all this, students will be given as much practical training in the various forms of newspaper work as is possible outside of a newspaper office.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.
